Senator Thomas S. Martin left the city Saturday for his home at Scottaville, where he spent Sunday with his family. Yesterday he spoke at Amherat county, as did Messrs, Swamson and Willard. From Amherst he went last night to Washington to attend to some oilficial business. From that city he will return to his headquarters here, and will probably remain here the rest of the week, having no other appointments.

Hon. Claude A. Swamson will go to Brunswick county, where he has an appointment to speak to-day. His movements thereafter are not announced, but he will probably speak somewhere on Wednesday.

SCHOOL REGISTER MATTER UP AGAIN

State Board of Education Will Hear Investigating Committee's Report Thursday.

Some decidedly interesting developments are expected at the adjourned meeting of the State Board of Education at the rooms of the Department of Fublic In struction next Thursday. The board will at that time convene at the call of the special committee appointed at the recent at that time convene at the call of the special committee appointed at the recent meeting to seek other evidence bearing on the contract for the publication of the school register and the ownership of that publication.

The fact that this committee, consisting of Attorney General Anderson, Dr. Lyon G. Tyler and Mr. John T. West, has called a meeting is of itself sufficient warrant that these gentlemen have found evidence sufficiently important to warrant further inquisition into the question of the connection of any member of the State Board of Education or of any employe in the school register.

It is known from other sources that the committee has secured documentary evidence in the form of letters and papers, books, receipts, etc., that in their opinion are important, and it can further be stated as a fact that oral testeron will be offered to explain and opinion are important, and it can further be stated as a fact that oral testimony will be offered to explain and sustain the showing made by the documents in evidence. It is practically certain that this evidence will show positively either that Mr. Thomas was the sole owner of the publication or that he was not at some time in the past. Those who know decline to give out any more definite information, and, in fact, any information at all, much of that gleaned being from the inferences which, however, are inevitable.

The board will convene Thursday morning, and will probably sit all of that day and possibly not conclude that evening. It is expected that the conclusions reached will be given to the public.

BOSTON, MASS., June 13.—A telegram received to-night from Chief of Police Howard, of Alken, S. C., established the identity of Thomas Nelson Baker, of that town, who was found dead yesterday under somewhat mysterious circumstances in his room at the South End in this city. # NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

More Comment in Regard to the Use of Crostic's Wagon.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.
Mr. Hammond Fischer on being seen last night in regard to his alleged use of the wagon of Mr. E. E. Crostic, the butcher, for the purpose of carrying a smallpox corpse to the cemetery, denied the story in toto. He claimed to have used Mr. Crostic's wagon merely on his own personal convenience. What have used Mr. Crostic's wagon merely for his own personal convenience. What wagon he did use for bearing the body to the grave he refused to disclose, inasmuch as he stated, it might cause further unpleasant comment.

Mr. Crostic stated that Mr. Fischer borrowed his wagon, and Mr. William Bishop's horse, for what purpose he did not know, as Mr. Fischer did not state for what use he needed the wagon.

Mr. Crostic, in continuing his side of the affair, said that when the wagon was returned, the foreboard had been taken out, which had not been done for two years, and the seat shifted. Why this was returned, the foreboard had been taken out, which had not been done for two years, and the seat shifted. Why this should have been done he could give no reason. The wagon body as it was, he said, was too short to have carried a coffin. He stated, furthermore, that he was fully convinced in his own mind as to the real situation.

Mr. Crostic, on account of the unpleasantry induced by the afair, has caused his wagon to be taken to a shop, where it is being furnished with an entirely new top and body.

This will incur a cost of about $40, and as it has been the cause of much loss of business, Mr. Crostic is much put out because of the matter.

The affair has caused a good deal of comment, but as steps have been taken to place a new top and body on the wagon, it will probably be hushed up very soon.
